I. Reading Comprehension : (5 M)1. Read the following passage from "The Town Mouse and The Country Mouse".

"This is how it is in the country," his cousin replied. "It is always quiet in the country. Sometimes it is quieter than today. My grandfather says that our village is the quietest among all the villages in our district." "Oh! Is it? The country is a strange place," said the town mouse. But he said to himself, "I don't think I like this place."

Next morning, the town mouse found that there was no breakfast ready. His cousin told him that they had to go to the nearby farm to search for food. "We are sure to find something there," he said. "A nice piece of root or a tender bit of sugar-cane."

But the town mouse had enough. "Thank you, cousin," he said. "But I think I'll catch the next train home. I have suddenly remembered that I have forgotten something."

A few days later, the country mouse wrote to his cousin, the town mouse. Here is the letter.
